Subject: Curfew in Effect Today 6:00 PM to 6:00 AM (TUESDAY, JUNE 2)

To: RAP DOC Public Information Officer <rap.docpio@lacity.org>

Hello RAP Team,

The City and County of Los Angeles will again extend the curfew today Tuesday, June 2, 2020. The curfew will be in place tonight starting at 6:00 p.m. through 6:00 a.m. Wednesday morning.

All City residents should remain inside tonight, with the exception of first responders, people going to and from work, people experiencing homelessness and without access to a viable shelter, and anyone seeking or giving emergency care.

ALL RAP STAFF: In case you are stopped by law enforcement officers, please wear appropriate City badges and/or Recreation and Parks shirts, uniforms or attire. Attached to this email, you will find an “Essential Employee Travel Placard”. Please feel free to use this form to place in your cars while traveling to and from work.

STAFF WORKING AT SHELTER SITES: LAPD Officers will notify shelter staff in the event they need the site to be on lockdown.

STAFF NOT WORKING AT SHELTER SITES: If protesting occurs near your facility IMMEDIATELY lock down your facility and call your supervisor for further instruction.

We have been made aware of the following locations as potential protest sites for today (Tuesday, June 2, 2020):

- City Hall - All day
- Venice/Abbot Kinney Blvd - 8:00 AM
- LAPD HQ (100 W. 1st St.) - 10:00 AM
- North Hollywood Recreation Center - 10:00 AM
- Van Nuys Courthouse - 11:00 AM
- Hollywood/Vine - 12:00 PM
- Pershing Square (6th and Hill) - 12:00 PM
- Leimert Park - 12:00 PM
- Grand Park (DTLA) - 12:15 PM
- LAPD's Harbor Station (2175 W. John S Gibson Blvd) - 3 PM

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the RAP Duty Officer at 213-833-8393.

Thank you,

Ashley
